

FOOTBALL IN THE HILLS

HILL CENTRAL KICKS OFF NEXT SATURDAY

FOOTBALL will soon be into swing again and this year throughout the Hills district will see a revival by all teams to pre-war strength and enthusiasm.

The Hill Association will comprise eight teams, viz:—Aldgate, Hahndorf, Mount Barker, Uraidla, Woodside, Forest Range, Stirling and Onkaparinga.

Hills Central Association comprises the following:—Strathalbyn A and B teams, Echunga, Kangarilla, Callington, Milang, Macclesfield, Meadows.

Torren Valley Association lists nine teams this season, comprising:—Houghton, Lobethal, Gumeracha, Williamstown, Mount Pleasant, Chain of Ponds, Ketsbrook, Paracombe and Birdwood.

The Hills Central Association will get away to an early kick-off this season, their opening matches commencing next Saturday, 27th inst. The following teams will meet on the grounds of the first-named clubs:—

April 27—Kangarilla v. Milang
Strathalbyn A v. Strath'n B
Echunga v. Macclesfield
Callington v. Meadows

All clubs throughout the Hills have been preparing for weeks for the great kick-off; grounds have received special attention, new goal posts, guernseys and everything connected with football, acquired. The great Australian National rules game gives every indication of staging a real revival this year, with players back from the services and interest and enthusiasm rife in all centres.
